

Position Title:

Staff Nurse

Location: Teluk Intan

Responsibilities

- Prime dialyzer and bloodlines
- Record patient's medical information and vital signs
- Make ready of dialysis equipment
- Oversees dialysis treatment from start to finish
- Cannulate accesses
- Demonstrate the abilities to administer medications including thrombolytic
- Identifies irregular dialysis reaction and notify to appropriate team members
- To ensure blood investigations are carried out on schedule or as instructed by the doctor. All blood results to be charted and filed. Any abnormalities of the results should be notified to doctor immediately.
- To ensure patients' medical files are updated at all times. All prescriptions and doctor's notes are filed accordingly.
- To inform the Staff Nurse In Charge of any defective medical equipment, accidents and complaints. To hand over daily occurrence and status to the staff nurse of the next shift via the incident book.
- To inform patients of their next treatment dates and to notify Staff Nurse In Charge of any changes in schedule.
- To assist in the counseling and education of patients, including diet and rehabilitation.
- To ensure that the dignity, safety and well being of the patient are respected at all times.
- To observe codes of confidentiality in the nursing care of the individual patient.
- To develop good communication with patients' relatives and visitors. To greet patient and be courteous to them.
- To maintain professional behavior, appearance and attitudes at all times.
- To perform duties as assigned by superior and willing to be deployed or relocated

Position Title:

Staff Nurse

Location: Teluk Intan

Requirements

Professional Qualification

- Diploma or Degree in Nursing

Skills & Experience

- Less than 2 years in nursing services or Newly qualified as a registered nurse

Other Additional Requirement(s)

- Good interpersonal & communication skill
- Must obtain a valid Annual Practicing Certificate (APC)
- Preferable with BLS within 6 months of employment.
- High level of integrity and confidentiality
- Willing to be deployed
- Able to use computer
- Must be able to perform other related duties as assigned by superior

If you are interested in this job position, please email your resume to

hr.my@fmc-asia.com